NEWBERRY MINISTER SPEAKS IN COLUMBIA

Criticism Compulsory Use of Bible in Schools—Discusses Proposed Law.

The Rev. E. Pendleton Jones, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church of Newberry, when addressing a large congregation at the First Baptist church in Columbia last night, made a vigorous denunciation of the movement which he said of late has gained some strength and encouragement throughout the country to compel the use of the Bible as a text book in the public schools. The minister declared the movement bad because, he said, the United States was founded upon the principle of a separate church and State, and for the "better reason that the kingdom of God is one of love and not compulsion." He deplored the fact that a law to this end had been introduced during the recent session of the Georgia legislature, and "that many people had been deceived because the movement had the apparent purpose of good."

"I believe in an open book and a free mind, and I warn you against it as being one of the most dangerous movements of the times," said the speaker.

The reference to the law was only incidental to an eloquent discourse on "The Kingdom of God," in which "love, free and abundant love," was set up as "one of the laws of the kingdom." The other laws that make the kingdom are the law of service and the law of sacrifice, the speaker said.

Mr. Jones made a strong plea for "service, sacrifice and love, which would admit of no compulsion and that would need none, and for a Bible read and taught by Christians who love the book 'for the book's sake'."

School Rally.

The Educational Rally at Saluda school Thursday, August 27, was well attended by a large crowd. The general topic of the day being "Education," the speakers spoke from different view points.

Mr. Brown, county superintendent of education, introduced all speakers beginning with Mr. N. W. Workman, of Newberry, who made an impressive talk on well rounded education of school work.

Mr. Pitts, county superintendent of education of Laurens, stirred the men to action in starting petitions for the improvement of their schools. A plenteous dinner was spread by the ladies of the community, and lemonade was to be had at the stand.

In the afternoon Dr. Wyche made a good speech, as usual, advancing the idea of teaching older men and women in the Sunday schools to read and write.

Prof. Setzler, of Newberry college, spoke fluently in behalf of better rural schools to meet the requirements of four colleges.

Mr. Brown closed the speaking by assuring the people that he and Miss Goggans, rural school supervisor of Newberry county, were anxious to serve them. The ball game between Saluda and Mt. Willon resulted in a score of 3 to 1 in favor of Saluda.

Not only was the day an enjoyable but also a profitable one for petitions to vote a special tax in both Monticello and Saluda districts were almost unanimously signed. We predict good fruits as a result of this meeting.

Two Irishmen were among a class that was being drilled in marching tactics. One was new at the business and turning to his companion, asked him the meaning of the command, "Halt!" "Why," said Mike, "when he says 'Halt' you just bring the foot that's on the ground to the side as the foot that's in the air and remain motionless."

The play that is tried on the dog isn't always a howling success.

Quality of Her Money.

We used to be pretty well acquainted with a physician in a little town where there weren't many cases—but where there were always more cases than collections. This fine young practitioner had one troublesome patient—an old woman, who was practically on the free list, but who registered more kicks than all the other patients put together.

One day she called to roast him for not showing up when she called him the night before.

"You can go to see your other patients at night," she howled, "so why can't you come when I send for you? Ain't my money as good as the money that them rich people pay you?"

"I don't know, ma'am," answered the doctor, gently. "I have never seen any of yours."

THE SUMTER LIQUOR FIGHT.

Clerk McLeod Denies Alleged Statement Regarding Dispensary Petition.

Sumter, August 30.—In a statement made to The News and Courier correspondent today, Mr. R. L. McLeod, clerk of the county board of commissioners, denied ever having admitted to anybody that the dispensary petition was not signed by one-third of the qualified voters of the county. He states that he has never made any statement to this effect, and that any such statement is without foundation in fact.

In reference to the article published in Friday's News and Courier from Sumter, in which it was stated that a prohibitionist had stated that the clerk to the county commissioners had made such a statement to him, it should be qualified by the statement that from the prohibitionist's point of view, one-third of the qualified voters of the county had not signed the petition. The prohibitionists allege that taxes must be paid six months prior to the election, while the dispensary advocates and the county attorney allege that this is not the law for this election. If the anti-dispensary contention were law, there would be about one hundred and fifty persons, otherwise qualified to vote who should be disqualified. This would not give the petition one-third of the qualified voters, but those in favor of the dispensary contend that such is not the law, and that they, therefore, have the required number of qualified voters.

Allendale, Aug. 31.—J. B. Harter, chief of police of Allendale was shot and killed today about 3 p. m., by Joe Walker at Lena, a station on the Southern railway in Hampton county. He leaves a wife and five children. Where he had gone to take into custody a negro prisoner. While Harter was waiting at the depot to take the train home, Walker, who is the section foreman at that place, shot him five times, killing him instantly.

It is said that Walker had an old grudge against Harter.
